Find out what services are offered, how you open an account at BB Americas, and what are the costs of an international transfer. And compare that to TransferWise's costs and services. Banco do Brasil Americas' services and agencies With services in Portuguese, Spanish and English. Banco do Brasil Americas customers can open current accounts for individuals and companies. You can also open a savings account, request a prepaid card, debit and credit card, and make domestic and international transfers. There are currently five BB Americas affiliates³ located in the capitals of the state of Florida, in the United States: Adventure: 17900, Biscayne Boulevard - Brickell Adventures: 1221, Brickell Ave, Suite 2200 - Miami Boca Raton: 698, Yamato Road, Suite 5 - Boca Raton Lighthouse Point: 345, North Federal Hwy. You must go to the agency and make a minimum deposit at the age of $100 and go to a bank branch with the necessary identification documents. There is a fee of $12 if you meet some conditions as it is always to keep the balance at more than $2000. You will need to buy one that resides in the U.S. with a document as well as be able to deliver your Social Security Number (SSN). If you prefer to open an account over the Internet, you also have the E-Gold option. However, the minimum deposit will be US$10,000 for Banco to Brasil³ customers, with a monthly maintenance fee of $25. In this case, you may reside in another country. You'll need a valid ID, such as a passport, ID card or driver's license, as well as proof of address and account statement. If you want an online account with no fees (minimum deposit €20), you also have the option of TransferWise. To get a free debit card, you must have an address in Europe or the United States. It's good to remember that TransferWise isn't a bank, but it's as safe as one. And everything happens in a few clicks. Banco do Brasil Americas: Shipment to Brazil Compare in the table below the costs charged, order online transfer US$1,000 from the United States to a bank account in Brazil: Provider Rate Total exchange rate payable by Banco to Brasil US$30.00 There is a bank margin on the commercial exchange rate US$30 + exchange margin + Swift TransferWise costs US$16.87 Trading Exchange, no margin over 16.87 USD The above figures were banco do Brasil's rate table and transferwise calculator on 10/23/2019. If you want to send money from the United States to Brazil with BB Americas, you can fill out a transfer request on the bank's website and then approve the transfer via WhatsApp, following the administration's instructions to complete the shipping process. Remember that the transfer will not take effect until it has been approved by the application. BB Americas charges a service fee for sending money from the United States to Brazil, in addition to swift's fee. The bank also adds a trading exchange rate fee at the time of conversion transfer. Transfers abroad with Banco to Brasil accountants Banco do Brasil can make international transfers through a payment order in foreign currency or through an agreement with Western Union. However, no matter the way you choose, if you want to send money from Brazil to the United States, or in reverse, with Banco to Brasil, know what fees they will make to make the transfer. Issue fee: service fee charged by the Bank for international transfers Exchange rate: like most banks, Banco do Brasil uses its own exchange rate on the value of the trading exchange, making the operation more expensive for those who send IOF remittances: the Brazilian government rate is 1.1% when you receive international transfers, 0.38% if you send it from Brazil on behalf of a third party abroad, and 1.1% if you send it to the same account holder abroad Swift Fee: banks charge it to cover the cost of international communication. For example, by sending from Brazil to the U.S., Banco do Brasil has its Swift expenses set at R$60 Remittance with TransferWise if you are looking for an economic alternative to banks to make your international transfers with TransferWise. Check out the table below with the fees charged for money transfers between Brazil and the United States. Sending exchange rate Total tariff payable Recipient receives R$1000 reais from Brazil to US Exchange of trade with no margin over R$22.35 Reais R$1000 (already included tariffs and IOF total of R$22.35) US$239.99 USD$100 $0 dollars from the U.S. for Brazil Exchange trade without margin above $16.87 $1000 (already included in the target of $16.87) R$4,007.61 reais Amounts were reviewed according to a consultation from March 10, 2019 in the TransferWise calculator. The IOF charged is 0.38 %, for a transfer between bank accounts of the same property. You want to know why it's so cheap? Simply, the conversion of your money is done with a trading exchange moment, without charging an additional currency exchange fee. Another significant difference from TransferWise is that there is no swift fee because instead of a shipment there are two local transfers. Sending and receiving money is done through TransferWise's local partners in the countries of origin and destination of the transfer. In Brazil, for example, the corresponding cambais are Banco Rendimento and MS Bank, allowed by the central bank to conduct foreign exchange operations. Save money with TransferWise when sending international transfers between Brazil and the United States. How to send money with TransferWise In addition to being a cost effective option, sending money with TransferWise is also practical. Follow the next step-by-step process and make transfers abroad in minutes: If you don't already have one, create a free account on the TransferWise website or app Enter the transfer amount and delivery and receiving currencies Enter the details of the local acquirer's bank, and then make a payment. In Brazil you can pay with a ticket or TED; In the U.S., you have an ACH debit, card, or transfer When you receive a payment, TransferWise partners will convert the money and send the amount to the recipient's account in the United States via another local transfer. Typically, it takes several hours to 3 business days, but the delivery estimate is displayed as soon as the transfer starts.
